Parashah (Weekly Torah Portion) .....$1,080 x _____ quantity = $ _____

Dedicate an entire Bar or Bat Mitzvah torah portion or weekly Torah portion that is meaningful to you for a past or future celebration. Please circle the parashah/shot you would like to dedicate. A Parashah is a section of the Torah assigned for weekly reading in synagogue worship. The Torah, also known as the Five Books of Moses, is divided into 54 separate portions, each one named for the first word or words of the passage — and each linked to a specific week. The weekly portion is read aloud, or chanted, from the Torah scroll as part of the Torah service in synagogue on Shabbat (Saturday) morning.
